

International Directory of Corporate Giving 2021

The most comprehensive source of information on the corporate philanthropic sector and their grant making activities.

The International Directory of Corporate Giving profiles thousands of corporate groups making contributions to nonprofits organizations worldwide. It includes foundations identified as being established and funded primarily by corporations and hundreds of giving programs funded directly by companies. Corporations profiled here vary from those with specific interests and structured formal giving mechanisms to those with broad purposes and unstructured, informal contributions programs.

The Directory is intended for use by grant seekers in locating potential support, grant makers in learning more about other grant makers, scholars researching the field, journalists reporting on contributions activities of the corporate world, and everyone generally interested in philanthropy. The most comprehensive directory on corporate giving available, it includes only corporations that provided information for which public documents on giving were available.

The Directory is arranged alphabetically by company name. Each entry is assigned a sequence number, and references in the indexes which follow the main listings are to entry sequence numbers. Each company's entry is divided into parts: a general description of the company and its activities, and a description of the company's direct giving program and/or foundation.

The Giving Statement data element in the company's general description outlines which and how many giving mechanisms - corporate giving, also known as direct giving and/or foundations - the company employs. A company may have only a direct giving program, only a foundation, both, or two more foundations. Each distinct giving entity has a separate description. There are dozens of basic data elements which could be included in an entry. The completeness of an entry varies widely due to the differences in the size and nature of a company's program and the availability of information from the company.
