

INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS FUNDING DIRECTORY 2022

The comprehensive directory of Grants and Project Funding for Human Rights & Non-Governmental Organizations worldwide!

This Directory deals with the funding of non-governmental organizations (NGOs) by international organizations, and the joint projects undertaken by the two.

Each major international organization is profiled in its own chapter, where its subordinate sections, institutions, departments and directorates will feature, along with the projects they run in partnership with important local, national or international NGOs.

Projects included are those run in collaboration with local, national or international NGOs, which are influential on a national or international scale.

Projects are included in any area of activities, including: environment and conservation; development aid; rural development; women's empowerment; civil society; education and human rights.

Each entry, where relevant, includes information on the following: name and aims of the organization, department or project; activities; geographical area of activity; financial information (grants disbursed); restrictions (e.g. project run in certain area, no grants to individuals, grants made through a specific NGO, etc.); how to apply for funding; publications; and principal staff. These details are supplemented by full contact details, including internet and e-mail addresses.

In addition, the directory contains comprehensive index sections detailing the geographical area covered by projects, and the type of activity funded.

Full contact details are provided for each entry, as well as:

- the name and aims of the organization, department or project;
- activities;
- geographical area of activity;
- grants disbursed;
- restrictions on the project or grant;
- how to apply for funding; publications;
- principal staff.

Entries:

- Only projects run on an international or broad national scale are included
- All projects included are run in collaboration with local, national or international NGOs, or are funded by these organizations
- The directory is indexed by geographical area of activity and by type of enterprise.

The International Organizations Funding Directory is the indispensable reference work for all who working with NGOs, Institutes and Centres who need up-to-date, reliable information on sponsorship and funding.
