

South Asia Research Centers Directory 2022

This new Directory comprehensively provides unparalleled access to all independent, university, government, non-profit and commercial research and development activities throughout Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, India, the Maldives, Nepal, Pakistan, and Sri Lanka.

The South Asia Research Centers Directory's listings are organized into 19 sections by subject.

These include:

- Agriculture & Food
- Archaeology & History
- Astronomy
- Biology
- Business & Economics
- Earth Sciences
- Education
- Energy & Industry
- Engineering & Technology
- Environment
- Health & Medicine
- Humanities & Social Sciences
- Industrial Relations
- International Affairs
- Law
- Mathematics
- Regional Affairs
- Religion
- Women & Gender

The South Asia Research Centers Directory arrangement by subject affords users easy, browsing access to the types of research programs that concern them.

The Directory listings include full organization contact information, including email and URL addresses. In addition, most of the Research Centers Directory entries feature a wealth of descriptive information, including: year founded; affiliation; budget; key staff; financial support; research activity; publications; educational activities; scholarships and awards bestowed; library holdings; and services offered.

Entries include:

- the name of centre, address and full contact details including email and URL
- senior personnel names
- centre affiliations
- staff numbers
- description of research program
- publications
- services and special facilities.

The directory includes master, subject, name and country indexes.

The Directory would be an important reference resource to public and academic libraries, organizations, NGOs, and all agencies and institutions concerned with research within and on South Asia.
