South & Central American Defence Directory 2022

The comprehensive annual guide to South & Central American Defence companies, including contact details, senior management, products, and factories.

The South & Central American Defence Directory is the most comprehensive and accurate database on companies, and their executives, throughout all of South & Central America. The directory also includes those national defence government officials that oversee purchasing.

Assisting defence contractors to identify new opportunities throughout this region, this Directory covers hundreds of companies providing invaluable comprehensive business information on these companies and its leaders in this industry.

Additionally the Directory lets you contact those senior officials responsible for defence procurement - from the executive leadership and military and civilian defence and national security agencies down through the service branches. The Directory also gives you names, ranks, areas of responsibility and contact information.

Company entries in this Directory typically provide:

- Name and address
- Phone, fax numbers, email and website addresses
- Names of senior management and board members
- Description of business activities
- Products and services
- Brand names and trademarks
- Subsidiaries and associates
- Number of employees
- Financial information
- Import/export markets

Government Defence entries in this Directory typically provide:

- Contact details for procurement military officers and defence officials including name, rank, title, email, website, addresses, and phone and fax nos.
- Procurement and logistics officials
- Intelligence and national police officials
- Senior officers in tactical army, air force and navy commands.
- and much more!

The South & Central American Defence Directory has been especially compiled to assist professionals with market research, strategic planning, as well as contacting prospective clients. It is also an indispensable guide to all of the South & Central America's defence industries, key corporate executives and defence officials responsible for procurement.
